TITLE: AUTOPSY TECHNICIAN TRAINEE (Provisional* Appointment)

SALARY: $32,242 - $40,891 annually

LOCATION: Monroe County Department of Public Health - Office of the Medical Examiners

JOB SUMMARY:

This is a training position in the Medical Examiner's Office designed to develop the skills required to independently perform duties involved with assisting the physician staff with the performance of autopsies and body processing functions in the Medical Examiner's Office as an Autopsy Technician. Work involves assisting with processing bodies, preparing autopsy rooms/setting up autopsy tables, eviscerating human bodies, dissecting and weighing organs, documenting findings, weights, etc., cleaning and sterilizing autopsy instruments and releasing bodies to funeral homes. Work further involves extended periods standing and the ability to remove potentially heavy human remains over significant distances and up/down heights. Upon successful completion of a one (1) year training period, incumbents are promoted to Autopsy Technician without further examination. Incumbents who do not successfully complete the one (1) year training period will be removed from the position. The employee reports directly to and works under the direct supervision of the Senior Autopsy Technician. Does related work as required.
