Description of Duties:

This is an entry-level position in the Department of Human Services responsible for eligibility determination, diversion, child support and client management activities as they relate to financial services dealing with English and Spanish speaking clients. Duties involve assisting with ensuring the most efficient and effective use of public funds while performing one or more of the following: interviewing English and Spanish speaking clients, computing budgets, determining initial and continuing eligibility for financial programs, implementing diversion services, preliminary case assessment, developing and modifying paths, monitoring client compliance, preparing and filing court petitions, monitoring child support payments, and providing customer service. The work is performed in accordance with Federal, State and local laws, regulations and guidelines and includes consulting with Caseworkers and program specialists. This position differs from the higher, Senior Examiner Bilingual, in its responsibility for basic client management activities. The employee reports directly to, and works under the general supervision of, a Senior Examiner or other higher-level staff member.

Scope of Examination:

The written, multiple-choice test will cover knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

Interpreting and applying written Social Welfare program materials, and using basic arithmetic in determining eligibility for assistance

You will be presented with written passages related to Social Services policies and procedures and be asked to interpret their meaning and/or apply this material to hypothetical case situations. Secondly, you will be given sets of written instructions and regulations regarding such Social Services programs as cash assistance, medical assistance, and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits.

You must read and understand the instructions given, including schedules of arithmetic figures, and apply these instructions to hypothetical case problems. Some questions require using arithmetic to compute the correct amount of assistance.

Previous knowledge of Social Services programs or the eligibility process is not required.

Recording case notes

You will be given several sentences from a typical case report paragraph and one additional sentence. You must determine the best place in the paragraph to put the additional sentence in order to make the report coherent and meaningful.

Interviewing

You must apply principles and techniques of interviewing to such problems as asking and answering questions, explaining requirements and helping the client understand his or her responsibilities, helping the client feel at ease, structuring and controlling the interview, reacting appropriately to inconsistencies, dealing with a variety of feelings of clients, maintaining confidentiality, and identifying the need for and making appropriate referrals. In addition, some questions may deal with contacting or interacting with other community organizations and agencies to benefit the client or the general public.

Calculators and Reference Materials:

Most civil service written tests do not require the use of a calculator or slide rule. However, the use of calculators is ALLOWED for this exam. Candidates have the option of bringing a hand-held, quiet, battery or solar-powered arithmetic calculator or a slide rule to the test room. Candidates will not be permitted to use calculators containing spell check, dictionary, language translator, address or telephone book, personal digital assistants, or typewriter keyboard features, or any similar devices.
