Description of Duties:

This is an important supervisory position involving responsibility for the operation of various programs initiated for adolescent children (ages 10-15) residing in a secure detention facility, usually by Family Court order. Employees of this class are responsible for coordinating and implementing orientation, training and supervision of Senior Child Care Workers and Child Care Workers on a rotating shift basis and on alternating work schedules including weekends and holidays. Work is performed under general supervision from the Principal Child Care Worker.

Scope of Examination:

The written, multiple-choice test will cover knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

1. Child and adolescent development

These questions test for knowledge of the principles, practices, and problems related to child and adolescent growth and development. Questions may cover such topics as concepts and principles of development; normal and abnormal patterns of behavior; dynamics of relationship formation; causes of problem behaviors; and the effects of peers, family, personality, and sociological influences on development and behavior.

2. Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

3. Situations and problems in supervising and counseling delinquent and/or socially maladjusted youth

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices of supervising and counseling delinquent and socially maladjusted youth. Questions may cover such topics as interviewing, counseling, supervising, and guiding youth with social adjustment problems; crisis intervention; handling emergencies; and working with staff, agencies, and families in supervising and guiding socially maladjusted youth.

4. Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

5. Working with youth

These questions test for the knowledge and abilities needed to work with youth and their problems. Questions may cover such topics as normal and abnormal adolescent behavior and development, youth perspectives and points of view, environmental factors and effects, establishing rapport with youth, problems of alcohol and drug use/abuse, teenage pregnancy, and delinquency.
