Line Foreman

Examination Date: December 10, 2022

Application Deadline: October 28, 2022 – Applications must be submitted online or filed in our office by 5PM or postmarked by this date.

Who May Apply: Qualified employees of Fairport Municipal Commission

Salary: $121,410 annually

Employment Opportunities: The Fairport Municipal Commission has one (1) position currently held by a provisionally appointed employee, who may be appointed on a permanent basis if found reachable on a civil service list established as a result of this exam.

The results of this exam may be used to fill vacancies, which may occur during the life of the eligible list.

An open-competitive exam is also being offered for qualified applicants.

Minimum Qualifications:

Candidates must be permanently employed in the competitive class at the Fairport Municipal Commission and must have served continuously on a permanent basis for Twenty-four (24) months holding the position of Senior Lineworker immediately preceding the date of the written test.

Any person, otherwise meeting the requirements for an examination, who was laid off from an agency for which the examination is being held, and whose name is presently on a preferred list is eligible to compete in the examination. When completing the application, such person should be sure to indicate his/her present employment and/or the title and location of his/her last permanent employment in the municipality.

Description of Duties:

This is a laboring position in the Lineworker field in which the incumbent oversees the work program for all the line crews. The program involves technical work in the erection, installation and maintenance of electric power distribution lines and the rebuilding and maintenance of substations, underground vaults and related equipment. The incumbent is responsible for actively instructing crew chiefs and crew members in their duties and responsibilities. The Line Foreman is required to perform Lineworker duties at the level of a Journeyman Lineworker. The work is performed under general supervision of the Superintendent Electrical Operations. Direct supervision is exercised over Senior Lineworkers and Lineworkers. Does related work as required.

Scope of Examination:

The written, multiple-choice test will cover knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

Principles, practices, tools and equipment of the electrical trade

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices of the electrical trade, including such areas as tools and equipment used, proper electrical circuit wiring procedures, and appropriate methods of providing safe, efficient, and effective electrical service.

Plans, specifications and wiring diagrams

These questions test for knowledge of the purposes and proper use of various types of electrical system plans, specifications, and wiring diagrams; and for the ability to read and understand electrical system schematics, wiring diagrams, and written specifications.

Installation and maintenance of overhead and underground electrical distribution system service lines

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in the installation and maintenance of both overhead and underground electric power distribution system lines; and may include such areas as the proper installation and maintenance of line poles and related attachments; installation and maintenance of electrical lines, cables, transformers, and service wires; troubleshooting and repair of line faults and failures; and safe operating procedures.

Installation, maintenance and repair of electrical power distribution systems

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in the installation, maintenance, and repair of electric power distribution systems; and may include such areas as the operating characteristics of electric power system generators, transformers, and switchgear; maintenance of electric power distribution system equipment including distribution lines; typical circuits, voltages, and conductors used for the distribution of electrical power; and safe operating practices when working with electric power distribution systems.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Calculators and Reference Materials:

Most civil service written tests do not require the use of a calculator or slide rule. However, the use of calculators is RECOMMENDED for this exam. Candidates have the option of bringing a hand-held, quiet, battery or solar-powered arithmetic calculator or a slide rule to the test room. Candidates will not be permitted to use calculators containing spell check, dictionary, language translator, address or telephone book, personal digital assistants, or typewriter keyboard features, or any similar devices. You may not bring books or other reference materials.

This written examination is being prepared and rated in accordance with Section 23(2) of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Law, Rules and Regulations dealing with the preparation and rating of examinations, as well as establishment and certification of eligible lists for positions in the classified service will apply to this examination.

Veteran's Credits:

Veterans entitled to and wishing to claim additional points must file in the Monroe County Department of Human Resources an Application for Veteran's Credits (VC-1) form, and a copy of their military discharge papers (DD-214). Disabled veterans must also file two (2) copies of an Authorization for Veteran's Disability Record (VC-4) with Veterans Affairs. These forms are available at the Monroe County Department of Human Resources and must be filed within thirty (30) days of the examination date. No credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

Candidates currently on active duty may apply within thirty (30) days of the examination. Upon discharge, candidates must submit a copy of their military discharge papers (DD-214). Any extra points will be applied upon our receipt of the discharge papers.

Active Military Members:

Special testing arrangements may be available to applicants who are active military members. For further information contact the Monroe County Department of Human Resources before submitting an application.

Special Arrangements for Examination:

If you need an alternate test date because you are a Religious Observer [for religious reasons, cannot be tested on date of examination(s)], if you have a disability that requires special accommodations for you to participate in an examination, or if you require any other kind of special accommodations, you must notify us at the address or telephone numbers listed on the front page of this announcement by the application deadline. Indicate your request on the front of your application for each exam, and under separate cover submit a statement outlining the reason for your request, the exam number(s) and title(s), and attach supporting documentation.

Multiple Exam Takers:

Persons also applying for examinations offered by the City of Rochester and/or New York State Civil Service Commission held on the same date must complete a crossfiler form, available from the Monroe County Department of Human Resources, which will provide for special arrangements. Arrangements must be made to take ALL examinations at ONE test site. Unless this form is filed with the Monroe County Department of Human Resources three (3) weeks prior to the exam date, we cannot ensure that such arrangements will be made. If you are taking multiple exams on the same date with Monroe County Civil Service Commission only, you do not have to file a cross-filer form.

Candidates taking more than one (1) exam in different exam series will be allowed the specified length of time for each exam, up to a maximum of eight (8) hours. Example: If you are taking one (1) exam which allows six (6) hours and another exam in a different series which allows four (4) hours, you must complete both tests in eight (8) hours, but you can spend no more time on each exam than the time allotted for that exam.

Candidates taking more than one (1) exam in the same exam series will be allowed up to the specified length of time for each exam. Example: If you are taking two (2) exams in the same series with a maximum time of five (5) hours for each exam, you can spend no more than five (5) hours to complete both exams.

Admission to Examination:

All applications will be reviewed after the "Closing Date for Filing" listed on the front page of this announcement. If there is a problem with your application, you will be notified in writing and given an opportunity to submit additional information to support your application. If there are no problems with your application, you will be sent an admission notice approximately one week before the exam date. If you have not received your admission notice to appear for the examination three days before the date of the exam, call the Monroe County Department of Human Resources at (585) 753-1700.
